

Pre-information session survey – Anonymous (Please do not provide your name)

Thank you for coming to this information session. Before we get going, we would like to ask you a few brief questions that will help us plan for future presentations.

- 1) Do you feel confident in your understanding about the types of affordable housing available locally? The three types of housing include: government sponsored, community development corporations and private landlords.

On a scale of 1 between 5, please circle your self-appraisal about your level of understanding:

Low confidence		Somewhat confident		High confidence
I don't know anything about the three types of affordable housing	Somewhere between these two examples 	I know a little bit about the three types of affordable housing	Somewhere between these two examples 	I am comfortable and confident in my understanding of affordable housing
